AMENDMENT NO. 5

On page 1, delete lines 11 through 20 and delete pages 2 and 3 in their entirety and insert the following:

"A. Except as provided in Subsection F of this Section, all regularly commissioned non-attorney notaries, ~~except ex officio notaries;~~ shall file an annual report with the secretary of state on or before the anniversary date of his commission on the form developed and mailed, or provided by electronic means, by the secretary of state pursuant to R.S. 35:191.2(2)(a), together with payment of the filing fee established by the secretary of state pursuant to R.S. 35:191.2(3). The annual report shall be completed in full and signed by the notary.

B. Except as provided in Subsection F of this Section, a notary who fails to timely file the required annual report and pay the filing fee pursuant to Subsection A of this Section shall be assessed a late fee not to exceed fifty dollars by the secretary of state. ~~However, prior to the assessment of the late fee, the secretary of state shall, by certified mail, notify the notary of his failure to timely file the annual report and pay the filing fee and of the late fee and sanctions. The notary shall be given sixty days from the date on which the notification is postmarked to have the late fee reduced to ten dollars by filing his annual report and paying the filing fee in accordance with this Section. A notary who fails to timely file his fully completed annual report within sixty days as provided in this Subsection shall have his authority to exercise the duties and functions of the office of notary public automatically suspended.~~

C. ~~Should any notary fail or refuse to pay the annual fee fixed by R.S. 35:191.2, or fail to provide the proper bond as required by law, the secretary of state shall promptly notify the clerk of court of the parish where the notary is commissioned by filing an affidavit to that effect and the clerk shall file that affidavit and a rule to show cause in the civil district court in that parish to have the notary's commission revoked. The affidavit with the rule stating the notary's failure to pay the required annual fee will create a rebuttable presumption that the commission shall be revoked. The clerk of court of the parish where the rule and affidavit are filed, or his designee, shall appear in the hearing on the rule and present the affidavit to the court. The commission of any notary who fails to timely file his fully completed annual report within sixty days after its due date as provided in Subsection A of this Section, shall be automatically suspended, and the notary shall have no authority to~~ exercise any of the duties or functions of a notary public until a current required annual report has been filed, and the notary has paid all accrued fees and late charges for a period not to exceed three years in connection with the suspension of his commission.

D. All offices, agencies, and departments of the state and political subdivisions with authority to appoint certain persons as ex officio notaries or otherwise authorize persons to exercise any notarial powers pursuant to the revised statutes and codes of this state shall file an annual report on the form developed and mailed, or provided by electronic means, by the secretary of state pursuant to R.S. 35:191.2(2)(b), not later than the first day of July of each year.

E. The secretary of state shall send by certified mail to any office, agency, department of the state, or political subdivision of the state which fails to timely file the required annual report within the delays provided by Subsection D of this Section a notice of such failure to timely file the required report. The authority of a person appointed as an ex officio notary or otherwise authorized by the revised statutes and codes of this state to exercise the function of a notary public and the authority of any office, agency, department of the state, or political subdivision of the state to appoint ex officio notaries or to otherwise authorize persons to exercise notarial functions shall be suspended if the annual report is not filed within sixty days as provided in this Section.

F. A notary granted a leave of absence by the governor pursuant to R.S. 35:131 or 132 shall not be subject to the fees, or penalties, or revocation proceedings established by Subsection A, B, or C of this Section during the term of his leave of absence. However, a notary granted a leave of absence shall, if possible, return the completed annual report form delivered pursuant to Subsection A to ensure the accuracy of information contained in the notary database maintained by the secretary of state; provide the secretary of state with a current address during such leave.

G. ~~Should the proper official be unable to find any notary upon whom he desires to make service of process in any cause brought by the secretary of state under the authority of this Part, the secretary of state shall cause to be advertised at least three times at intervals of not less than seven days nor more than ten days in the official journal of the parish in which the action is filed. If no appearance has been made by the defendant notary in said cause, the clerk or his designee shall appear at the hearing against the absent defendant, as provided by law: A regularly commissioned non-attorney notary who is seventy years of age or older shall be permitted to elect a special commission status upon retirement from active service as a notary public by filing with the secretary of state a written request for such status along with an affidavit attesting to such status and certifying that he will no longer exercise the duties and functions of a notary public during such time as such status is in effect. A notary with such inactive status shall not be required to maintain a bond or file an annual report. However, a notary granted inactive status shall notify the secretary of state of any change of address to ensure the accuracy of information contained in the notary database maintained by the secretary of state. A notary may resume active commission status by filing a current annual report with the required fees with the secretary of state and posting bond in the amount then required by law."~~
