On page 11, between lines 14 and 15 and insert the following:

"§601. Vacancy in office of state legislators; legislative service

A. If a vacancy in the office of a state legislator occurs and if six months or more of the term remains unexpired, then within ten days of the vacancy occurring, the presiding officer of the house in which the vacancy occurs shall determine the dates of the primary and general elections and the dates of the qualifying period for the election and shall issue a proclamation advising of the vacancy and setting forth the election dates and dates of the qualifying period for candidates. However, if the deadline for issuing the proclamation falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or other legal holiday, then the next day which is not a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday shall be deemed to be the final day for issuing such proclamation. The speaker of the House of Representatives or the president of the Senate shall immediately forward such information to the secretary of state, who shall within twenty-four hours after receipt of the information notify all election officials having any duty to perform in connection with a special election to fill such vacancy, including the parish boards of election supervisors for the parish or parishes in which the vacancy occurred. The secretary of state shall also publish the proclamation in the official journal of each parish in which the election is to be held.

B. For purposes of Article III, Section 4(E) of the Constitution of Louisiana only, the service of a person who is elected to fill an unexpired term in the office of state legislator shall begin at the time such person takes the oath of office before his house of the legislature.

"(1) Bonds or securities not in default as to principal or interest, which are the direct obligations of or which are secured or guaranteed as to principal and interest by the United States, any state or territory of the United States, or the District of Columbia where there exists the power to levy taxes for the prompt payment of the principal and interest of such bonds or evidences of indebtedness and any federal farm loan bonds issued by federal land banks, debentures issued by federal intermediate credit banks, and debentures issued by banks for cooperatives, collateralized mortgage obligations (CMO), bonds, and other mortgage-backed securities issued by the Federal National Mortgage Association, the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, the Government National Mortgage Corporation, and the Vendee Mortgage Trust. Nothing in this Part shall prohibit the acquisition by a domestic insurer of United States government securities, the purchases of which are otherwise permitted under this Part in accordance with the Federal Reserve System United States Treasury Department program relating to the utilization of book entry recordkeeping procedures."

AMENDMENT NO. 7

"C.(1)(a) Any domestic life insurer, in addition to the investment permitted by Subsection A of this Section, may invest in the shares of capital stock, American Depository Receipts, which are listed on a national securities exchange, and securities of any solvent corporation (other than a corporation engaged solely in the business of owning and operating real estate, or a corporation having substantially all of its assets invested in the shares of such corporations, except as specifically provided in Subparagraph (b) of this Paragraph) created under the laws of the United States, or of any of the states of the United States, or the District of Columbia, provided that the shares or American Depository Receipts of such corporation are registered on a national securities exchange, as provided in an Act of Congress of the United States, entitled the "Securities Exchange Act of 1934", approved June 6, 1934, as amended,⁴ or local exchanges, or are readily marketable, or shares of foreign corporations listed on the New York Stock Exchange or the American Stock Exchange, and provided further that such corporation is listed on a national securities exchange at the time of the investment or has earned during any three years of the five-year period next preceding the date of the investment, a sum applicable to dividends equal in the aggregate to not less than twelve percent of the par value (or, in the case of shares having no par value, the stated value) of its outstanding shares.

(b) Any domestic life insurer, in addition to the investment permitted by Subsection A of this Section, may invest in the stock of a real estate investment trust (REIT) whose stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange or the American Stock Exchange, provided such investment shall not exceed five percent of the total number of shares of any one such trust and that not more than two percent of the insurer's admitted assets are invested in shares of any one such trust. Shares in each such trust which has over one-half of its assets invested in ownership of real estate or which has such ownership as its stated investment objective shall be considered real estate investment for purposes of conforming with the limitation on real estate ownership imposed by Subsection G of this Section.

D. Any domestic insurer, in addition to the investments permitted by Subsection A of this Section, may invest an amount equal to its capital and surplus if it is a stock company, and, if it is a company other than stock, it may invest an amount equal to its surplus over all liabilities as follows:

(1)(a)(i) In shares of capital stock, American Depository Receipts listed on a national securities exchange, bonds, securities, or other evidences of indebtedness of any solvent corporation (other than a corporation engaged solely in the business of operating real estate or a corporation having substantially all of its assets invested in the shares of such corporation except as specifically provided in Item (ii) of this Subparagraph) created under the laws of the United States, or the states of the United States, or the District of Columbia, or a foreign corporation whose stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange or the American Stock Exchange, provided that such insurer may not, except in the case of shares permitted by Paragraph (9) of Subsection A, invest in the shares or American Depository Receipts of a manufacturing corporation, commonly known as "industrial", unless such corporation is listed on a national securities exchange at the time of the investment or has earned during any three years of the five-year period next preceding the date of the investment, a sum applicable to dividends equal in the aggregate to not less than twelve percent of the par value (or, in the case of shares having no par value, the issued value) of its outstanding shares, or if such shares have been issued less than five years, has earned a sum applicable to dividends during the tenure of such issue, equal to not less than four percent per annum of the par value, (or, in the case of shares having no par value, the issued value) of its outstanding shares.

(ii) In the stock of a real estate investment trust (REIT) whose stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange or the American Stock Exchange, provided such investment shall not exceed five percent of the total number of shares of any one such trust and that not more than two percent of its admitted assets are invested in shares of any one such trust. Shares in each such trust which has over one-half of its assets invested in ownership of real estate or which has such ownership as its stated investment objective shall be considered real estate investment for purposes of conforming with the limitation on real estate ownership imposed by Subsection G of this Section.

HOUSE FLOOR AMENDMENTS

Amendments proposed by Representative Richmond to Engrossed House Bill No. 1146 by Representative Triche

AMENDMENT NO. 1

On page 1, line 2, after "(5)" and before the comma "," insert "and 102.21"

AMENDMENT NO. 2

On page 1, line 3, after "crime;" and before "and " insert to prohibit cockfighting; to provide for penalties;"

AMENDMENT NO. 3

On page 1, line 6, after "(5)" and before the comma "," insert "and 102.21"

AMENDMENT NO. 4

On page 1, at the end of line 15, insert the following:

§102.21. Cockfighting

A. As used in this Section, the following words and phrases have the following meanings ascribed to them:

(1) "Cockfight" means a contest wherein birds are set against one another with the intention that they engage in combat.

(2) "Cockfighting weapon" means any object which has a point or a blade and which is designed so that it can be attached to a fighting bird. The two common types of "cockfighting weapon" are the "gaff", which is narrow and pointed and the "knife", which has a blade.

(3) "Fighting bird" means any bird which is intended for participation in a cockfight or any bird (typically of the genus Gallus, but not limited to those birds) derived from specific breeding of birds commonly used in a cockfight.

(4) "Organized cockfight" means any cockfight that is conducted as a commercial enterprise. Evidence that a cockfight is an "organized cockfight" includes but is not limited to a published schedule of the event, advertising of the event, charging admission to the event, offering a prize in connection with the event, records of wagers made in connection with the event, and scales used for the weighing of fighting birds.

B.(1) Promoting or conducting an organized cockfight is prohibited. Assisting in promoting or conducting an organized cockfight is prohibited. Whoever promotes or conducts an organized cockfight or whoever assists in promoting or conducting an organized cockfight shall be fined ten thousand dollars and imprisoned, with or without hard labor, for not less than one year nor more than five years.

(2) Possession or handling of a fighting bird at a cockfight is prohibited. Whoever possesses or handles a fighting bird at a cockfight shall be fined not less than two thousand five hundred dollars nor more than ten thousand dollars and imprisoned, with or without hard labor, for not less than one year nor more than five years.

(3) Possessing a cockfighting weapon is prohibited. Whoever possesses a cockfighting weapon shall be fined one hundred dollars for each cockfighting weapon possessed. In addition, the cockfighting weapon shall be confiscated and destroyed.

(4) The amputation of the comb or the wattles from a rooster is prohibited, except when performed by a licensed practicing veterinarian as a medical necessity. The modification of the natural spur of a rooster for the purpose of holding a cockfighting weapon is prohibited. Except for a licensed, practicing veterinarian acting on the basis of a medical necessity, whoever amputates the comb or wattles from a rooster or modifies the natural spur of a rooster to hold a cockfighting weapon shall be fined not more than one thousand dollars.

(5) Employment at a cockfight means to be in charge of or assist in any operation or function at or in support of a cockfight, including but not limited to keeping the gate, keeping records, weighing birds, and operating a concession. Evidence of payment for services is not necessary to prove that a person was employed at a cockfight. Employment at a cockfight is prohibited. Whoever is employed at a cockfight shall be fined not less than five hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars or imprisoned for not more than six months, or both.

(6) Attending a cockfight is prohibited. Whoever attends a cockfight shall be fined not more than one thousand dollars.

(7) The breeding of fighting birds is prohibited. Whoever breeds a fighting bird shall be fined not more than one thousand dollars or imprisoned for not more than six months, or both.

(8) Transportation of fighting birds on any public road or across any parish line is prohibited. Whoever transports fighting birds on a public road or across a parish line shall be fined not less than five hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars per count."

Point of Order

Rep. Triche asked for a ruling from the Chair as to whether the above amendments were germane to the subject matter contained in the bill as introduced.

Ruling of the Chair

The Chair ruled that the above amendments were germane to the subject matter contained in the bill as introduced.

Rep. Richmond moved the adoption of the amendments.

Rep. Triche objected.

By a vote of 41 yeas and 49 nays, the amendments were rejected.

Rep. Triche moved the final passage of the bill.
