(d) There shall be an exemption from severance tax as provided in this Subparagraph for production from any horizontally drilled well, or, on any horizontally drilled recompletion well, from which production commences on or after July 1, 2015. The exemption shall last for a period of twenty-four months or until payout of the well cost is achieved, whichever comes first. For the purposes of this Section "horizontal drilling" shall mean high angle directional drilling of bore holes with fifty to three thousand plus feet of lateral penetration through productive reservoirs and "horizontal recompletion" shall mean horizontal drilling in an existing well bore. Payout of well cost shall be the cost of completing the well to the commencement of production as determined by the Department of Natural Resources.

(i) The amount of the exemption for a well that produces oil shall be based upon the price of Crude Oil Spot Prices (nominal dollars and West Texas Intermediate Spot) per barrel adopted by the Energy Information Administration which is published in the Annual Energy Outlook report. The price per barrel for any production that commences on or after July 1, 2015 through December 31, 2015, shall be based on the price per barrel published in the April 2015 edition of the Annual Energy Outlook report. The price per barrel for any production commencing on and after January 1, 2016, for the ensuing twelve calendar months, shall be based on the price per barrel published in the annual edition of the Annual Energy Outlook report. The amount of the exemption shall be as follows:

(aa) There shall be no tax if the price of oil is at or below seventy dollars per barrel.

(bb) The tax rate shall be reduced by eighty percent if the price of oil is above seventy dollars and at or below eighty dollars per barrel.

(cc) The tax rate shall be reduced by sixty percent if the price of oil is above eighty dollars and at or below ninety dollars per barrel.

(dd) The tax rate shall be reduced by forty percent if the price of oil is above ninety dollars and at or below one hundred dollars per barrel.

(ee) The tax rate shall be reduced by twenty percent if the price of oil is above one hundred dollars and at or below one hundred ten dollars per barrel.

(ff) There shall be no exemption in effect if the price of oil exceeds one hundred ten dollars per barrel.

(ii) The amount of the exemption for a well that produces natural gas shall be based upon the Natural Gas Spot Price at Henry Hub (nominal dollars per million BTU) adopted by the Energy Information Administration which is published in the Annual Energy Outlook report. The price of natural gas for any production that commences on or after July 1, 2015 through December 31, 2015, shall be based on the price published in the April 2015 edition of the Annual Energy Outlook report. The price for natural gas for any production commencing on and after January 1, 2016, for the ensuing twelve calendar months, shall be based on the price published in the annual edition of the Annual Energy Outlook report. The amount of the exemption shall be as follows:

(aa) There shall be no tax if the price of natural gas is at or below four dollars and fifty cents per million BTU.

(bb) The tax rate shall be reduced by eighty percent if the price of natural gas is above four dollars and fifty cents per million BTU and at or below five dollars and fifty cents per million BTU.

(cc) The tax rate shall be reduced by sixty percent if the price of natural gas is above five dollars and fifty cents per million BTU and at or below six dollars per million BTU.

(dd) The tax rate shall be reduced by forty percent if the price of natural gas is above six dollars per million BTU and at or below six dollars and fifty cents per million BTU.

(ee) The tax rate shall be reduced by twenty percent if the price of natural gas is above six dollars and fifty cents per million BTU and at or below seven dollars per million BTU.
