HOUSE FLOOR AMENDMENTS

Amendments proposed by Representative Emerson to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 233 by Senator Edmonds

AMENDMENT NO. 1

On page 2, delete lines 20 and 21 in their entirety and insert the following:

"C.(1) The maximum amount of tax credits that may be granted for a calendar year, referred to hereafter in this Subsection as the "credit cap" shall be as follows:

(a) For the calendar year beginning January 1, 2026, and ending December 31, 2026, the credit cap shall be one million dollars.

(b) Beginning January 1, 2027, and each January first thereafter, the credit cap for the calendar year shall be established in accordance with the following provisions:

(i) If the secretary of the Department of Revenue determines that less than eighty percent of the credit cap amount authorized for the preceding calendar year was granted, then the credit cap for the current calendar year shall not be adjusted.

(ii) If the secretary of the Department of Revenue determines that at least eighty percent of the credit cap amount authorized for the preceding calendar year was granted, then the credit cap for the current calendar year shall be increased by one million dollars.

(iii) The credit cap for a calendar year shall not exceed five million dollars.

(2) No later than July first of each year, the secretary of the Department of Revenue shall publish on the department's website a notice of the credit cap amount authorized for the calendar year in which the notice is published. However, when the credit cap for a calendar year reaches five million dollars, the secretary shall no longer be required to publish notice of the credit cap amount on the department's website.

(3)(a) Beginning January 1, 2027, taxpayers shall apply for the tax credit on a form and in the manner prescribed by the secretary of the Department of Revenue. The application period shall begin on January first and conclude on February twenty-eighth of each calendar year following the calendar year in which the credit is deemed earned. Eligible applications shall be approved by the department on a first-come, first-served basis as determined by the date and time that a completed application is received by the department. An application shall not be considered complete until all information requested by the department has been received. A taxpayer is deemed eligible upon satisfactorily demonstrating that it has met the requirements of this Section, where applicable.

(b) If the aggregate amount of applications received on a single business day exceeds the total amount of available tax credits, the secretary of the Department of Revenue shall approve tax credits on a pro rata basis. In the event the taxpayer is subject to proration, the taxpayer shall only be eligible for a credit equal to the pro rata amount for the tax period deemed eligible."

On motion of Rep. Emerson, the amendments were adopted.

Rep. Carver moved the final passage of the bill, as amended.

AMENDMENT NO. 6

On page 8, between lines 18 and 19, insert:

"SUBPART H. ALIEN REMOVAL PROCESS

§574.71. Definitions

As used in this Subpart:

(1) "Alien" shall have the same meaning as defined in 8 U.S.C. 1101.

(2) "Committee" means the Deportation Eligibility Hearing Committee, which shall be comprised of a three-member panel of the members of the committee on parole, and which shall hear and decide deportation eligibility cases as provided in this Subpart.

(3) "Department" means the Department of Public Safety and Corrections.

(4) "Removal" means the deportation of an alien from the United States to another country.

§574.72. Alien removal process; deportation eligibility hearing

A. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, an offender shall be eligible for parole consideration and release for the purposes of deportation or removal pursuant to this Section if the following conditions have been met:

(1) The offender is an alien who has a final order of removal or a detainer issued by the Department of Homeland Security.

(2) The offender is not serving a sentence for either of the following:

(a) A sex offense as defined in R.S. 15:541.

(b) A crime of violence, as defined in R.S. 14:2(B), punishable by imprisonment for ten years or more, life imprisonment, or death.

(3) The offender has been approved for a deportation eligibility hearing by both the governor and the district attorney of the parish where the conviction was obtained.

B. For any offender who meets the criteria of Subsection A of this Section, the committee shall:

(1) Conduct an expedited pre-hearing investigation.

(2) Notify the district attorney and sheriff of the parish where the conviction was obtained and any registered victim at least thirty days prior to any deportation eligibility hearing.

(3) Conduct an expedited deportation eligibility hearing.

(4) Render its decision ordering or denying the release and transfer of the offender for the purpose of deportation or removal within seven days of the hearing.

C. Any decision by the committee to grant an offender release on parole for the purpose of deportation or removal shall include and recite the following conditions of release:

(1) The offender shall only be released from physical state custody directly to the custody of the Department of Homeland Security and shall be held in its custody until the offender is physically removed from the United States.

(2) The remainder of the offender's sentence shall be suspended upon the date the offender is transferred out of state custody.

(3) If the offender is deemed to be ineligible for deportation or removal for any reason, the offender shall be transferred back to state custody to serve the remainder of his current sentence.

(4) If deported or removed from the United States, the offender shall remain outside of the United States and the state of Louisiana and shall not attempt to reenter the country unless such reentry is in compliance with Title 8 of the United States Code.

(5) If the offender is discovered or detained within the United States after deportation or removal, the parole of the offender shall be automatically revoked by the committee on parole and the offender shall be remanded to state custody to serve out the balance of the suspended sentence.

D.(1) If the committee grants a release on parole for the purposes of deportation or removal pursuant to this Section, the committee shall issue all orders and paperwork necessary to transfer or deliver the offender to the custody of the Department of Homeland Security.

(2) Upon release of the offender to the Department of Homeland Security, the committee shall issue a warrant for the return of the offender to the custody of the department to be executed if the offender is released from the custody of the Department of Homeland Security for any reason other than deportation or removal.

E. The committee shall have sole discretion as provided by R.S. 15:574.11 regarding its decision to release the offender pursuant to this Section, and no person shall have a right of appeal from any such decision."

Rep. Villio moved that the amendments proposed by the Senate be concurred in.

"inability to provide a local match that is unrelated to the mismanagement of governmental operations, financial misconduct, abuse, or fraud.

(ii) The division of administration shall determine which municipalities and parishes meet the population-based qualifications established in this Subparagraph. In determining the population of a municipality or parish for purposes of the waiver authorized by this Subparagraph, the calculation of the municipality's or parish's population shall exclude the number of correctional facility inmates within the municipality or parish who are committed to the custody of a federal, state, or local corrections or law enforcement agency. The division of administration shall determine which municipalities and parishes meet the population-based qualifications established in this Subparagraph.

(iii) A municipality or parish shall demonstrate its inability to provide a local match by submitting to the division of administration:

(aa) The applicant's two most recent annual financial reports or audits pursuant to the provisions of R.S. 24:513, including an unqualified auditor's opinion and certification that there are no unresolved audit findings.

(bb) If the applicant project relates to an existing utility system, a rate study conducted within three years prior to the request for a waiver of the match.

(cc) A certification that the applicant has not been appointed a fiscal administrator pursuant to R.S. 39:1351.

(dd) A certification that the applicant is not delinquent on any outstanding debts, liabilities, or contractual or retirement payment obligations.

(ii) (iv) The division of administration shall review documentation submitted by the applicant and submit recommendations for waiver approval to the Joint Legislative Committee on Capital Outlay. The Joint Legislative Committee on Capital Outlay shall review the recommendations submitted by the division of administration and shall have final approval of match waivers.

(v) If the applicant project relates to an existing utility system, the division of administration may, at its discretion, approve a waiver of the entire match or a portion thereof pursuant to this Subparagraph that is contingent upon the applicant increasing utility rates."

Art. 3721. Methods of enforcing mortgage

A. A conventional mortgage is enforced by ordinary or executory proceedings.

B. In any ordinary or executory proceeding to enforce a promissory note or other debt instrument combined with a mortgage or other security device, the judgment or order of executory process granted may include any amounts which accrue after the rendition of the judgment or order, including until the collateral is sold by judicial process pursuant to the provisions of the promissory note, debt interest, or security device, including, without limitation, obligations to reimburse advances for taxes and insurance, inspection or other fees provided for by contract, reasonable attorney fees, and court costs. The provisions of this Article shall be enforceable notwithstanding any other provision of law requiring that a judgment or order specify a definite amount.

C. Prior to the date of the sheriff's sale, the seizing creditor or his counsel shall file into the record the payoff amount of the obligation being enforced, including any amounts which have accrued after the filing of the petition, or rendition of the judgment or order in the case of ordinary process.

D. Any party with an interest in the property seized, including but not limited to mortgage and lien holders, may file a rule to show cause to traverse the payoff amount filed in accordance with Subsection C of this Article. The rule to show cause shall be filed before the sheriff disburses any funds from the judicial sale pursuant to the writ being executed.

E. A sheriff's or other sale held pursuant to court order shall be valid notwithstanding failure of an interested party to comply with the provisions of this Article.

On page 1, delete line 20

On page 2, delete lines 1 through 12 and insert:

"Beginning January 1, 2026, the base maximum fee shall be adjusted annually to reflect the cumulative percentage change in the annual average of the Federal Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers, or CPI-U, or its successor index. The CPI-U shall be calculated using the unadjusted monthly index values averaged over the calendar year, as published by the United States Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics, or its successor agency, relative to the annual average for calendar year 2025. The adjusted maximum fee for any calendar year shall not exceed the amount resulting from applying a compounded annual growth rate of three percent to the base maximum fee of four hundred twenty-five dollars, beginning with calendar year 2024. If the cumulative percentage change in the CPI-U is negative, the adjusted maximum fee shall remain the same as the amount in effect for the prior calendar year. The legislative auditor shall calculate the adjusted maximum fee in accordance with this Paragraph and shall transmit the updated amount to the Louisiana Motor Vehicle Commission by February first each year. If the calculated adjustment results in a fee with a fractional dollar amount of less than fifty cents, the fee shall be rounded down to the nearest whole dollar. If the adjustment results in a fee with a fractional dollar amount of fifty cents or more, the fee shall be rounded up to the next whole dollar. The Louisiana Motor Vehicle Commission shall publish the adjusted maximum fee on its official website."

AMENDMENT NO. 3

On page 1, delete line 20

AMENDMENT NO. 4

On page 2, delete lines 1 through 12 and insert the following:

"(aa) The base maximum fee of four hundred twenty-five dollars adjusted by the cumulative percentage change in the annual average of the Federal Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers, or CPI-U, or its successor index. The CPI-U shall be calculated using the unadjusted monthly index values averaged over the calendar year, as published by the United States Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics, or its successor agency, relative to the annual average for calendar year 2024.

(bb) The amount resulting from applying a growth rate of three percent to the adjusted maximum fee for the previous calendar year.

(ii) If the year-over-year percentage change in the CPI-U is negative, the adjusted maximum fee shall remain the same as the amount in effect for the prior calendar year. The Division of Administration shall calculate the adjusted maximum fee in accordance with this Paragraph, which shall be verified by the legislative auditor, and the division of administration shall transmit the updated amount to the Louisiana Motor Vehicle Commission by February first each year. If the calculated adjustment results in a fee with a fractional dollar amount of fifty cents or more, the fee shall be rounded up to the next whole dollar. The Louisiana Motor Vehicle Commission shall publish the adjusted maximum fee on its official website."

(3)~~(a)~~ All regular sessions ~~convening in even-numbered years shall be general in nature and~~ shall convene at noon on the second Monday in March. The legislature shall meet in such a session for not more than sixty legislative days. No such session shall continue beyond six o'clock in the evening of the eighty-fifth calendar day after convening except as provided in Subparagraph ~~(5)~~ (4) of this Paragraph. No new matter intended to have the effect of law shall be introduced or received by either house after six o'clock in the evening of the twenty-third calendar day. No matter intended to have the effect of law, except a measure proposing a suspension of law, shall be considered on third reading and final passage in either house after six o'clock in the evening of the fifty-seventh legislative day or the eighty-second calendar day, whichever occurs first, except by a favorable record vote of two-thirds of the elected members of each house.

~~(b) No measure levying or authorizing a new tax by the state or by any statewide political subdivision whose boundaries are coterminous with the state; increasing an existing tax by the state or by any statewide political subdivision whose boundaries are coterminous with the state; or legislating with regard to tax exemptions, exclusions, deductions or credits, shall be introduced or enacted during a regular session held in an even-numbered year.~~

~~(4)(a) All regular sessions convening in odd-numbered years shall convene at noon on the second Monday in April. The legislature shall meet in such a session for not more than forty-five legislative days. No such session shall continue beyond six o'clock in the evening of the sixtieth calendar day after convening except as provided in Subparagraph (5) of this Paragraph. No new matter intended to have the effect of law shall be introduced or received by either house after six o'clock in the evening of the tenth calendar day. No matter intended to have the effect of law, except a measure proposing a suspension of law, shall be considered on third reading and final passage in either house after six o'clock in the evening of the forty-second legislative day or fifty-seventh calendar day, whichever occurs first, except by a favorable record vote of two-thirds of the elected members of each house.~~

~~(b) During any session convening in an odd-numbered year, no matter intended to have the effect of law, including any suspension of law, shall be introduced or considered unless its object is to enact the General Appropriation Bill; enact the comprehensive capital budget; make an appropriation; levy or authorize a new tax; increase an existing tax; levy, authorize, increase, decrease, or repeal a fee; dedicate revenue; legislate with regard to tax exemptions, exclusions, deductions, reductions, repeals, or credits; or legislate with regard to the issuance of bonds. In addition, a matter intended to have the effect of law, including a measure proposing a suspension of law, which is not within the subject matter restrictions provided in this Subparagraph may be considered at any such session if:~~

~~(i) It is prefiled no later than the deadline provided in Subparagraph (2) of this Paragraph, provided that the member shall not prefile more than five such matters pursuant to this Subparagraph; or~~

~~(ii) Its object is to enact a local or special law which is required to be and has been advertised in accordance with Section 13 of this Article and which is not prohibited by the provisions of Section 12 of this Article.~~

~~(5) Notwithstanding any contrary provision of Subsubparagraphs (3)(a) and (4)(a) Subparagraph (3) of this Paragraph and only if necessary to finally pass a bill appropriating money, the legislature, by a favorable record vote of two-thirds of the elected members of each house, may extend a regular session in increments of two legislative or calendar days. During the time that a regular session has been extended, the legislature shall not consider any matter having the effect of law other than those contained in a bill appropriating money. No regular session shall be extended more than six calendar days beyond the original time and day for the session to adjourn sine die.~~

Section 2. Be it resolved by the Legislature of Louisiana, two-thirds of the members elected to each house concurring, that there shall be submitted to the electors of the state, for their approval or rejection in the manner provided by law, a proposal to amend Article VII, Section 10(F)(1) of the Constitution of Louisiana, to read as follows:

§10. Expenditure of State Funds

Section 10.

(F) Projected Deficit. (1) The legislature by law shall establish a procedure to determine if appropriations will exceed the official forecast and an adequate method for adjusting appropriations in order to eliminate a projected deficit. Any law establishing a procedure to determine if appropriations will exceed the official forecast and methods for adjusting appropriations, including any constitutionally protected or mandated allocations or appropriations, once enacted, shall not be changed except by specific legislative instrument which receives a favorable vote of two-thirds of the elected members of each house of the legislature. ~~Notwithstanding the provisions of Article III, Section 2 of this constitution, such law may be introduced and considered in any regular session of the legislature.~~

Section 3. Be it resolved by the Legislature of Louisiana, two-thirds of the members elected to each house concurring, that there shall be submitted to the electors of the state, for their approval or rejection in the manner provided by law, a proposal to repeal Article III, Section 2(A)(5) of the Constitution of Louisiana. "

AMENDMENT NO. 6

On page 2, line 22, change "Section 3." to "Section 5."

AMENDMENT NO. 7

On page 2, delete lines 26 through 29 and on page 3, delete line 1, and insert the following:

"Do you support an amendment to provide that all regular legislative sessions shall convene at noon on the second Monday in March for not more than sixty legislative days within eighty-five calendar days, to remove subject matter limitations on the bills that may be introduced in certain regular sessions, and to provide limits on the number of bills a member of the legislature may introduce in any regular session?"

(Amends Article III, Section 2(A)(2)(a), (3), and (4) and Article VII, Section 10(F)(1); Repeals Article III, Section 2(A)(5))"

On motion of Rep. McMakin, the amendments were withdrawn.
