"C. As used in this Section, the following words shall have the following meanings:

(1) "Approved home study program" means an educational program of instruction that complies with R.S. 17:236.1.

(2) "Home study cooperative" means a voluntary association of parents who are homeschooling families who come together to share educational resources, group instruction, and social opportunities for their children who are in kindergarten through the twelfth grade and meet at various times and at various locations to participate in or enhance the education offered for their child's primary educational program, which may or may not align with the required or recommended kindergarten through the twelfth grade instructional state standards. Neither the frequency or location of meetings, shall alter the definition of "home study cooperative", whether the student is enrolled in a home study program approved by the state board or a nonpublic school not seeking state approval.

(3) "A nonpublic school not seeking state approval" means a home-based private education program operated by parents that provides the parents autonomy to educate their children without approval.

(4) "Operation of a home study cooperative" means the parents of the children participating in the home study cooperative and any other individuals assisting those parents while engaged in any actions taken to organize, facilitate, or operate the home study cooperative at any church, other place of worship, facility, home, or other structure utilized by the home study cooperative.

(5) "Parent" means the parent or guardian of any child under the age of eighteen.

(6) "Primary education" means a program of instruction for a student to comply with R.S. 17:221 from kindergarten through grade twelve, including but not limited to an approved home study program or a nonpublic school not seeking state approval.

(7) "State board" means the state Board of Elementary and Secondary Education.

D. Each home study cooperative shall remain subject to laws or other legal provisions relating to the protection of the physical health and safety of its students, and the prevention of unlawful conduct, including unlawful conduct in or near a public school. Otherwise, each home study cooperative shall be exempt from statutes, rules, regulations, guidelines, or other regulatory provisions imposed by the state, local governments, or local school systems, including, but not limited to, the following:

(1) No state, local, or other school system employee or other government employee shall initiate or conduct any site inspection, site visit, or other investigation that would not have been initiated or made but for the operation or presence of a home study cooperative.

(2) No public school governing authority shall take any action or in any manner discriminate against or otherwise distinguish any student or parent based on their participation in a home study cooperative.

(3) No public school governing authority shall require that any home study cooperative be in any manner required to register or otherwise report its existence or anything related to the operation of a home study cooperative.

(4) Home study cooperatives may, at their discretion, partner with local education agencies to voluntarily access extracurricular programming and interscholastic athletics, pursuant to R.S. 17:176.2, facilities, or dual enrollment opportunities.

E. If requested, the Louisiana Department of Education shall provide information and guidance to home study students or home study cooperatives for all of the following:

(1) Recommendations for curriculum and instructional materials that align with the Louisiana Student Standards in English language arts, mathematics, science, and social studies.

(2) Where to locate statewide assessments, including the ACT and WorkKeys.

(3) Eligibility guidance for participation in the Taylor Opportunity Program for Students (TOPS) and the Jump Start career pathway programs.

F. This section shall be known as the Home Study Cooperatives Protection Act."

AMENDMENT NO. 14

On page 5, after line 21, insert the following:

"§236.4. Partnerships with parents; public virtual schools; religious education; use of facilities; protection for church or other religious organizations; parental choice in education

A. The purpose of this Section shall be all of the following:

(1) To allow parents to enter into a voluntary partnership with a partnering church to provide religious education or socialization for their child who is a virtual learner at a public virtual school.

(2) To ensure that a parent in this state whose child is participating in a public virtual school, pursuant to R.S. 17:236.3, and who voluntarily chooses to partner with a church facility to provide religious education or socialization for their child, shall not be penalized because the child is taking the required online courses at a church and the parent shall not be subject to any additional restrictions or regulations other than those required by the public virtual school.

(3) To ensure that a church or other religious organization that partners with a parent or group of parents to provide children who are participating in a public virtual school with a facility for religious education or socialization retains all religious free exercise rights, including those enumerated under the First Amendment of the Constitution of the United States of America as well as Article I, Section 8 and Article XII, Section 17 of the Constitution of Louisiana and the remedies provided in the Preservation of Religious Freedom Act, pursuant to R.S. 13:5231, et seq., whether or not the operation of the public virtual school is directed by parents who are members of the church or nonmembers who live in the community.

B. As used in this Section, the following words, whether singular or plural, shall have the following meanings:

(1) "Parent" means the parent or guardian of any child under the age of eighteen.

(2) "Partnering church" means a church or other religious organization that partners with one or more parents to provide a facility for religious education or socialization.

(3) "Parent-church-public virtual school partnership" means a voluntary association of one or more parents whose children are virtual learners and who partner with a partnering church facility to provide religious education or socialization for their child. Neither the frequency or location of with a partner church shall alter the definition of "parent-church-public virtual school."

(4) "Public virtual school" has the same meaning as R.S. 17:236.3.

(5) "Virtual learners" are students who are participating in a program of education via a public virtual school.

C. Two or more parents whose children are participating in a public virtual school program, as provided in R.S. 17:236.3, may meet in a parent's home, church or other place of worship, or a nonprofit community center. Nothing herein shall prohibit the parents from combining the public virtual school curriculum with Bible classes or other religious courses of study.

D. The public virtual student shall be included in the membership count for the city, parish, or other local public school system that operates the public virtual school in which the student is enrolled for all purposes, including state funding through the Minimum Foundation Program formula.

E. No state agency, city, parish, or local public school board shall adopt a policy prohibiting the parent of a child enrolled in a public virtual school from partnering with a church or other person selected by the parent for any of the following purposes:

(1) Providing religious education or Bible study.

(2) Facilitating socialization for student enrichment.

(3) Supervising the student for the parent while the student is receiving virtual instruction or engaging in virtual learning.

F. Each partnering church shall remain subject to laws or other legal provisions required for a church relating to the protection of the physical health and safety of children and the prevention of unlawful conduct. Otherwise, each partnering church shall be exempt from statutes, rules, regulations, guidelines, or other regulatory provisions imposed by the state, local governments, or local school systems, including, but not limited to, the following:

(1) No city, parish, or other local public school board employee or other government employee shall initiate or conduct any site inspection, site visit, or other investigation that would not have been initiated or made but for the operation or presence of virtual learners, pursuant to a parent-church-public virtual school partnership.

(2) No city, parish, or other local public school board shall take any action or in any manner discriminate against or otherwise distinguish any student who is a virtual learner or a parent based on participation in a parent-church-public virtual school partnership.

(3) No city, parish, or other local public school board or the state board shall require that any home study cooperative be in any manner required to register or otherwise report its existence or anything related to the operation of a parent-church-public virtual school partnership."

30th Day's Proceedings - June 9, 2025

"H.(1) Payment of Tax. If any resident or nonresident shareholder fails to make timely payment of the taxes imposed on the shareholder by this state with respect to the shareholder's share of the income of the S corporation, the secretary may collect the payment directly from the S corporation through any collection remedy authorized by R.S. 47:1561.

(2) The payment referred to in Paragraph (1) of this Subsection shall be in an amount equal to the maximum tax rate provided for individuals or trusts and estates, where applicable, multiplied by each delinquent resident or nonresident shareholder's share of the S corporation's income attributable to this state, as reflected on the S corporation's return for the taxable period, plus any interest or appropriate delinquency penalty.

(3) Any amount paid by the S corporation to the state pursuant to this Subsection shall be considered to be a payment by the resident or nonresident shareholder on account of the income tax imposed on the resident or nonresident shareholder for the taxable period. To the extent that the payment made on behalf of the resident or nonresident shareholder exceeds the income tax liability of the resident or nonresident shareholder, that resident or nonresident shareholder shall be entitled to a refund, or may elect to utilize such excess as a credit against amounts that may be paid by the S corporation on his behalf with respect to subsequent taxable periods.

(4) An S corporation shall be entitled to recover its payment pursuant to this Subsection, including any interest or penalty due, from the resident or nonresident shareholder on whose behalf the payment was made."

AMENDMENT NO. 6

"Section 2. R.S. 19:136 and 136.1(3) are hereby amended and reenacted and R.S. 19:136.2(D) is hereby enacted to read as follows:

PART III-G. EXPROPRIATION OF ABANDONED OR BLIGHTED PROPERTY BY A DECLARATION OF TAKING BY THE CITY OF NEW ORLEANS, ~~AND~~ THE CITY OF GRAMBLING, ~~AND THE PARISH OF EAST BATON
ROUGE AND ITS MUNICIPALITIES~~

§136. Purpose

In an effort to control the rising number of abandoned or blighted properties throughout the state and to slow urban blight, the legislature finds it necessary to implement a mechanism by which the city of New Orleans, ~~and the city of Grambling, and the parish of East Baton Rouge and its municipalities~~ are empowered to more readily obtain abandoned or blighted properties. The provisions of this Part are intended to provide a means by which governing authorities may revitalize economically depressed areas by placing abandoned or blighted properties back into the economic stream of commerce through the rehabilitation of the abandoned or blighted property. The procedure created by this Part shall be in addition to any other procedure authorized by law.

§136.1. Definitions

For the purposes of this Part, unless the context clearly otherwise requires or unless otherwise defined in specific portions of this Part, the following words or phrases shall have the respective meanings:

* * *

(3) "Governing authority" means the city of New Orleans or any assignee thereof which is authorized by the municipality to carry out the purpose of this Part, ~~or the city of Grambling, or the parish of East Baton Rouge or its municipalities.~~

§136.2. Authority to expropriate; acquisition of abandoned or blighted property prior to judgment

D. In the Parish of East Baton Rouge, notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, expropriation proceedings shall be initiated by the member of the governing authority representing the district in which the subject property is located.

§1107. Certificates of public convenience and necessity; certificate of completion of injection operations

C. Notwithstanding the provisions of Subsection B of this Section, if any transporter of carbon dioxide has previously been issued a certificate of public convenience and necessity prior to the effective date of this Subsection, that certificate shall continue to remain valid and in force.

C-D. The commissioner shall issue a certificate of completion of injection operations to the operator applying therefor if, after a public hearing pursuant to R.S. 30:6, it is determined that such operator has met all of the conditions required for such certificate, including the requirements of R.S. 30:1109.

D-E. Notwithstanding any provision of this Chapter or any rule, regulation, or order issued by the commissioner under this Chapter to the contrary, accepting or acting pursuant to a certificate of public convenience and necessity or a certificate of completion of injection operations issued under this Chapter; compliance with the provisions of this Chapter or with rules, regulations, or orders issued by the commissioner under this Chapter; or voluntarily performing any act which could be required by the commissioner pursuant to this Chapter or rules, regulations, or orders issued by the commissioner under this Chapter shall not have the following consequences:

(1) Cause any storage operator or transporter of carbon dioxide for storage to become or be classified as a common carrier or a public utility for any purpose whatsoever.

(2) Subject any storage operator or transporter of carbon dioxide for storage to any duties, obligations, or liabilities as a common carrier or public utility under the constitution and laws of this state.

(3) Increase the liability of any storage operator or transporter of carbon dioxide for storage for any taxes otherwise due to the state of Louisiana in the absence of any additions or amendments to any tax laws of this state.

Section 2. This Act shall become effective upon signature by the governor or, if not signed by the governor, upon expiration of the time for bills to become law without signature by the governor, as provided by Article III, Section 18 of the Constitution of Louisiana. If vetoed by the governor and subsequently approved by the legislature, this Act shall become effective on the day following such approval."
