Rep. Berthelot greets Victory Belles at Louisiana State Capitol

State Representative John Berthelot, R-Gonzales, took the opportunity to meet and greet the Victory Belles from The National WWII Museum during a Memorial Day celebration at the Capitol yesterday. The Belles, a vocal trio who perform the music of the 1940s, are seen here photographed with Representatives Berthelot, Schexnayder and Bacala. The Victory Belles are made up of Dody Piper, Mandi Rigdell and Emily Rothlisberger, two of whom are from Ascension Parish, represented by the three members. They attended the Memorial Day celebration to perform the National Anthem before the House of Representatives.
