Subject: Redistricting

Dear Elected Officials,

I live in Hammond and understand that the redistricting process of Congressional District 1 will divide up the northshore district comprising of Tangipahoa, St. Tammany and Washington parishes. The people in this area, for the most part, have similar political beliefs and should not be carved up. It is a complete disgrace to see elected officials fighting to keep themselves elected in the redistricting process. Tearing apart a district like the northshore is a systematic attempt to dilute our voting strength.

I ask you to please leave this district intact.

Thank you.

John Gohres, Jr.
